EXHIBIT B: OBJECTION OR COMMENT

On June 30, 2017, Randy Young blood and (the Principle) Susan McGhee stated they both and teachers has had a "behavioral" problem with my son (5th grader) but not one time during that school year (2016-2017) did either one call me about the issues that "they" had with him. Nor did "they" mention it to me during report card pick-up or when I checked my son out of school. It was also stated that "As a Parent" I should already know what is going on with my child/children at school or what he is failing to accomplish at school.

They believe that it is because of his behavioral problems that he could not pass his State STAR Test in order to pass the 5th grade. Also my son has a therapist from South West Mental Health ~~that~~ come to the school every week to check on him and talk to his teachers again. Not once was it mentioned about behavioral issues with him. In my opinion, if you all had an issue with my child all school year why not call me or tell his therapist about the attitude, etc. I should have been notified at least once about it so that I could have taken further action. Another thing, every year I make sure that I put down on his registration packet that he has ADHD/ADD which he takes medication for.
